

Virtual AT Workshop

LEARN ABOUT ASSISTIVE TECHNOLOGY!

Participants will benefit from educational sessions to learn about Assistive Technology as it applies to providing access and independence

TRAINING WILL INCLUDE:

High Tech Speech Communication Devices

This intermediate level training will review different high tech AAC speech communication and eye gaze technology devices.

Google Chrome Extensions for Accessibility

This beginner level training will review accessible Google Chrome Extensions, where to find the extensions, and how to install them.

Apps for Learning Disabilities

This beginner level training will review apps to assist with Dyslexia and Learning Disabilities for those attending school or work.

Training Evaluations must be complete to received a Certificate of Attendance

WHEN:

December 2nd - 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm

WHO:

School teachers, therapists and other professionals working with individuals with disabilities

WHERE:

Online via Zoom

REGISTER for this training in advance

For more information or to request accommodations please call or email
(505) 321-6409 / jesse.armijo@state.nm.us